True Stuff About Kids

There is only one pretty child in the world and every mother has it.

Children are natural mimics, who act like you despite every effort to teach them good manners.

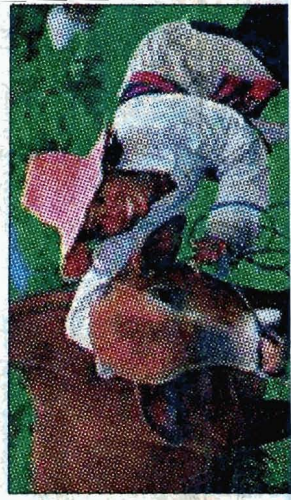

Mothers of teens are the only ones who know why

Don't have a cow this Christmas, give one!

(NUI) - Want to give a meaningful gift that won't be forgotten or stashed away after the holidays? something that “the person who has everything” doesn't have?

Heifer International, an organization working to fight hunger worldwide, has a solution: livestock.

By donating a sheep, cow or any other farm animal in honor of a loved one through Heifer International, you can help improve-

She's out to change our family courts
